MOTION PICTURE NEWSWhat the Picture Theaters
Have to Tell You.Pastime Today.

When the boy and girl grew up they married—sweethearts since childhood, their dreams were realized. A little son came to bless them and brighten their home through six happy years. The boy's grand-uncle was an old grouch—nothing less than a modern replica of Old Scrooge. He opposed his nephew's marriage and, like old Scrooge, withstood all appeals to visit the happy home. But he finally did agree, on Christmas, to come and "see the boy." What happened as a result of the old grouch's visit has been turned to gripping entertainment advantage by Bluebird Photoplays in Ella Hall's latest starring vehicle, "My Little Boy," to be presented at the Pastime theater today, with an all-star cast, including Miss Hall, Henry Johnson, Little Zoe Rae and Gretchen Lederer.

Alta Theatre.

At the Alta Theatre today, Julian Eltinge, the famous feminine impersonator is appearing in his latest Paramount picture, "The Widow's Might," a fascinating photoplay written for him by Marion Fairfax, author of the scenario for "The Secret Game," "The Clever Mrs. Cartax," "Hushinura Togo," "Freckles" and many other Paramount pictures. "The Widow's Might" was directed by William C. de Mille. In addition will be shown a Fox Sunshine Comedy, "Are Married Police Safe?"

W. S. HART, DEAR SHOT AND EXPERT HORSEMAN
As a bad man, William S. Hart does some excellent shooting in the Triangle play, "Hell's Hinges." Hart has the role of Blaze Tracy, who is quick on the draw and a dead shot. To show his prowess, Hart keeps a tin can in the air for several seconds by a fusillade from his revolver. He pulls another great feat when he severs the wires by which the lamps are suspended in a saloon.

Hart shows himself a wonderful horseman, too. For instance, he rolls down an embankment on horseback and then jumps about ten feet into the saddle. Hart had to practice this stunt three times before he was able to have it properly registered by the camera. Though he was sore from landing such a distance in the saddle, Hart shows his gameness in continuing till the picture was complete.

OVER THE NORTHWEST*$100,000 Asked in Suit.

SALT LAKE, June 7.—Governor Simon Bamberger of Utah today filed suit in the district court here against Samuel Untermeyer, New York attorney, for $100,000. According to the allegations mentioned in the complaint, for services rendered the defendant corporation and Mr. Untermeyer in connection with certain real-estate transactions involving property controlled by the defendants.

Greeks Oppose War Call.

TACOMA, Wash., June 7.—The ancient Greeks were a fighting race, but Philip Chantle and Theofanis George Mantarou, drafted in San Francisco, dislike the roll of musketry. They filed writs of habeas corpus in the federal court here today directed against Major-General H. A. Greene, commander of the 91st Division, to compel him to release them from the army.

Spokane Women Want Office.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 7.—At least two Spokane women will be candidates for republican nominations for the legislature next fall. Mrs. A. P. Fassett announced today that she was expected to run. The other woman who has been urged to make the campaign is Mrs. Kenneth Durham.

Loggers Are Poisoned.

MORTON, Wash., June 7.—News correspondence reaching the Morton Mirror this week contains an account of the poisoning of 14 loggers at the camp at Onalaska, midway between here and Chehalis. Poisoned meat was given as the cause. While none of the men died, their condition is said to have been very critical for a time. The men were put on a flat-car and taken to Onalaska. While being hurriedly taken to town the swaying and bumping of the loggers car added the one thing necessary to make them vomit, which, according to the attending physician, is all that saved their lives.

18 Graduates in Nation's Service.

PORTLAND, June 7.—Every member of the 1918 graduating class of the University of Oregon Medical School, excepting three men unable as yet to qualify physically, and the two women members, have enlisted in the military forces of the nation, and are now, on the day of their graduation exercises, assistant surgeons in the United States navy reserve force. There are 21 in the class and the commencement exercises, which are the thirty-first in the history of the school, will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the Central Library auditorium. There will be no flowers, that custom having been abandoned as a war-time non-essential. Several members of the class now on military duty out of the city will be graduated in absentia.

Tacoma Girl Gets Honor.

TACOMA, Wash., June 7.—Miss Enid Jackson of Tacoma, is the first girl in the United States to be chosen to work in the aviation department and will sail for France late in August to enter the service.

Woman Hangs Herself.

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, June 7.—The dead body of Mrs. Melissa Murray, age 33, wife of J. E. Murray, of the neighboring town of Buhl, yesterday adjudged insane in a probate court hearing, was found Wednesday hanging from her cell door in the county jail here, where she was confined awaiting the arrival of an attendant from the Blackfoot state asylum.

Stock Show Attracts.

LA GRANDE, June 7.—With a greater attendance than ever before the second day of the Union Stock Show went into history tonight with a blaze of glory. Governor Withycombe was in town, but indisposed and could not make a public appearance. Nevertheless, he hopes to grace the closing day tomorrow. Today's events came fast and furious.

LOCAL BOY SENDS MENU FROM FRANCE

Oliver Harshman, better known as "Curley," who is first cook with the headquarters company, 164th Infantry, France, writes to his mother, Mrs. Nancy Matthews, of 623 Walnut street on Mother's Day to say that he is in the best of health and that he just wishes to be with them all on that day. But maybe they will be together next year, he adds.

The lad sends a copy of the menu which the boys had for May 11, which shows they are pretty well fed. For breakfast, they had oatmeal-milk and sugar, fried bacon, potatoes, hashed brown, bread, syrup and coffee with cream and sugar. For dinner, Cook Harshman served them roast sirloin of beef, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, sweet corn, bread and butter, coffee with cream and sugar and bread pudding with lemon sauce for dessert. At the evening mess, they were given beef stew with spring vegetables, boiled potatoes, pickled onions, bread and oleomargarine, coffee, cream and sugar and date sauce. Captain E. Gunderson is mess sergeant for the company.

EFFICIENCY STORIES.

Clarence Budington Kelland, who wrote the "Efficiency Edgar" stories, "The Source," and "Sudden Jim," has gone to France to write of the war work of the Y. M. C. A. "over there."

FRANCE IS FOR HUMANITY.

A. E. Galla, of Seattle, a Y. M. C. A. worker secretary overseas, writes: "I have learned that the spirit of France is written in one word—Humanity."
